Overlooking the Caribbean from the highest point of the Belize coast, Coral House is conveniently located at the quiet end of Main Street in Punta Gorda, Belize. Combines the tranquility and services of a boutique hotel with easy access to the entire region. Originally built as a private residence in the 1930s, Coral House has been lovingly renovated and expanded into a unique and charming bed & breakfast with five guest rooms overlooking a pool, thatch-roofed bar, and manicured gardens. In addition to the main guest house, the property includes a duplex on an adjoining lot with a two-bedroom apartment on the ground floor and a one-bedroom apartment on the first story, each with private outdoor space to catch the sea breezes. The private rooms and public spaces have been tastefully decorated with locally crafted furnishings from native materials to create a unique, but perfectly Belizean, personality. Both buildings overlook well-maintained grounds with mature trees, perfect for watching birds, strolling or sitting by the sea, watching the waves. This property also makes an off-street
